

The Black Sea adventures

Active tour to Crimea

Try to cycle down the top of the main Crimean Ai-Petri Mount. Go hiking along the southern shore and enjoy the panoramic sea views. Descend from the steep ledge into the cave and explore the picturesque bays of the Black sea by kayaks. All the most beautiful about Crimea are concerned with nature, not cities indeed.

Experiences you'll have

Biking, hiking and kayaking in Crimea

During a week in Crimea you will have a real adventure, every day trying different types of outdoor activities:

you will ride a bike across the Vorontsov's and Livadia palace parks, as well as along the Solar trail, where Emperor Nicholas II preferred to go for a walk take a horse-riding tour to the foot of Shaan Kaya Mount with a hike to its top go down to Yalta from the picturesque Ai-Petri Mount, and if desired, try some extreme adventure, such as a zip-line ride over the gorge and walk along a rope ladder between the high peaks of rocks during kayaking you will discover beautiful secluded bays near Aya and Fiolent Capes: sheer cliffs hide them from hikers and therefore you can get to it only from the seaside you will feel like a real caver, descending 30 meters down from a steep rock with a rope to explore the Stavri-Kaya cave you will be able to capture the best views of the southern Crimean coast during a bike ride along the old Sevastopol highway and the "Baydar gate" pass.

This trip can be called a fitness tour. Every day you can enjoy a variety of outdoor activities at picturesque places, surrounded by mountains and the sea.

Itinerary

The journey begins in Simferopol, where you should travel to on your own. We are ready to help with the purchase of tickets, if necessary, leave a comment in the application.

Day 1

At 12 pm you will be met at Simferopol airport and then will be taken to Gaspra village. You will check in a mini-hotel, have lunch and relax. After that you will walk along the promenade or can go swimming in the sea (in summer season).

Day 2

Today you will rise to the top of Ai-Petri mount (1234 m high). Here, from the height of a bird flight you will admire the breathtaking views of Yalta and the Black sea, merging with the horizon.

A biking route from the top of the mount down to Yalta is waiting for you further. If desired, you can go through a rope ladder stretched between the "rock teeth" of Ai-Petri Mount, or take a zipline ride. Here you can also taste the Crimean Tatar cuisine (pilaf, chebureks, etc).

Day 3

Today you will have a horse-riding tour to the foot of Shaan Kaya Mount. Accompanied by a experienced instructor you will go along a mountain path surrounded by the ancient pines of the southern coast of Crimea.

Then you will walk up to the top of Shaan Kaya Mount. It is a rock with a negative slope. It looks like a majestic pyramid is rising over the sea. The top of the mount offers a panoramic view of Alupka and Simeiz villages. This peak is popular not only among tourists, but also among climbers and rope jumpers.

Day 4

Today you will enjoy a bike ride to Big Yalta. It is one of the most popular resorts of the whole Crimean peninsula. You will visit Vorontsov's and Livadia palaces, walk through the famous palace parks. Then you will go to the "Swallow's nest", that is considered to be one of the main symbols of Crimea. It is a small castle built on a stone ledge above the sea. You can also take a bike ride along the Solar trail, where Emperor Nicholas II used to go for a walk.

If the weather is hot, we will offer you an alternative program with a bike route to the Chernorechenskiy canyon and with visit to the palaces in the evening.

Day 5

After breakfast you will move to Balaklava. Here you will start the sea kayaking to Cape Aya or Cape Fiolent (the direction will be determined depending on the weather conditions and the level of the participants' physical training). You will reach the secluded bays, not available to hikers due to steep slopes and rocks. In one of these bays you will make a stop to relax, swim and have lunch.

Day 6

Today you will visit the Stavri-Kaya cave located on the Yalta Yaila mountain range. The entrance to the cave is located on the steep wall of the Stavri-Kaya rock. Inside the cave you will see gypsum crystals, that reach 5 cm in length.

The Stavri-Kaya cave is considered to be a natural monument. To get into the cave you need to go down along a steep wall from the height of 25-30 m, using a rope. You will descent in a special gear with a safety rope under the guidance of an experienced instructor.

Day 7

The old Sevastopol highway is a narrow road passing at an altitude under the rocks of Ai-Petri. It used to be the main transport link between Yalta and Sevastopol. Today the highway is closed to cars. So, it is nice to use it for cycling. Stunning panoramic views of the southern Crimean coast are opened at every point along the road. During the route you will visit the Foros Church and ride through a picturesque mountain pass named the "Baydar gate".

Having finished the route, you will return to the hotel and rest a bit. Then you will be taken to Simferopol airport (estimated time of arrival is 7 pm).
