

We invite you to the most "frosty" holiday, which is held at the coldest inhabited place on Earth! Participating in the unique festival "The Pole of Cold — Oymyakon" you will ride a reindeer sled and meet with three Lords of the Cold: Yakut Chyshaan, Lapland Santa Claus and Russian Ded Moroz. Despite the crackling frost, you will find here a festive mood and great fun!

Experiences you'll have

Tour to "The Pole of Cold Festival"

You will take part in the festival "The Pole of Cold — Oymyakon", which has been held annually since 2001 in one of the most severe places of our planet, representing the uniqueness of the Yakut and Evenk cultures. To reach Oymyakon is not so easy, you have to overcome about 1000 km along the famous Kolyma tract in the middle of the endless tundra and permafrost.

At the festival you will see the performances of ethnic groups of Yakutia, meet with the Lord of the Cold Chyskhaan, watch the traditional competitions between the reindeer breeders and racing on reindeer sledges, as well as will taste the national Evenk cuisine

This tour has a very rich excursion program:

you will visit the ethnographic complexes "Chochur-Muran" and "Us Kut", where you will get acquainted with the traditions of the indigenous peoples of Yakutia and even participate in the pagan purification rite called Algas meet with the Yakut Laika and go dog sledding on Ytyk-Kuel lake visit the Pole of Cold in Oymyakon, where the lowest temperature in Russia and the world is recorded: -71,2 °C (-96.16 °F)

see the unique ice sculptures in the underground gallery "The Kingdom of permafrost" and in the Ice residence of Chyskhaan visit the local lore museum in Tomtor, where you will learn about the fate of Russian famous writers who became the GULAG prisoners find out who will win this year the title of "Miss Pole of Cold» and who will become the best mistress of the Evenk national hut

Note: for group of up to 2-3 people, the cost will be 2630 EURO per person.

Itinerary

The journey begins in Yakutsk, where you should travel to on your own. Please, pay attention, that the time difference with Moscow is +6 hours, so you should fly to Yakutsk from Moscow on the eve of the first day of the program.

We recommend the flights by Yakutia Airlines with the departure from Moscow (Vnukovo airport) at 6 pm and by Aeroflot Airlines with departure from Moscow (Sheremetyevo airport) at 6:50 pm. We are ready to help with the purchase of tickets, if necessary, leave a comment in the application.

You will arrive to Yakutsk early in the morning. You will be met at the airport and taken to the hotel. Here you will check in and have some rest.

In the afternoon the excursion program will start. At first you will visit the ethnographic complex "Chochur-Muran". Here you will meet with the Yakutian Laika and have a dog sledding tour on the lake Ytyk Kuel. Lunch will be served in a restaurant in "Chochur-Muran" complex.

Next you will move to the ethnographic complex "Us Kut", where you will take part in the pagan purification rite called Algys. It includes a pray to the Supreme deities, as well as mystical rituals of lighting and feeding the fire.

Further a visit to the underground ice gallery "Kingdom of Permafrost" is waiting for you. It is a museum complex set inside the mountain where the throne-room of Chyskhaan — the Yakut Lord of Cold is located. The museum presents a unique collection of ice sculptures called "Planet Yakutia".
